

I thank You, Father, joy, praise, glory, and honor are my reward for enduring many trials at this time. These trials purify and refine my faith and reveal to all that my faith is genuine.

I Peter 1:6-7

I thank You, Father, I am not confused, for I know everything good and perfect is a gift from You who works all things for my ultimate well-being, and all oppression and robberies come from the devil who strives to destroy me at every turn.

James 1:17, John 10:10, Romans 8:28

I thank You, Father, that I am confidently expecting to experience God's promises in Christ, because You are not wishy-washy. You do not say "yes" sometimes and "no" at other times, but at all times, You enthusiastically say "yes," "I will," or "so be it" to every one of Your promises.

II Corinthians 1:18-20

I thank You, Father, I am already eternally healed before I see it in the natural, because the whipping of Jesus was the price paid for my healing and that happened over 2000 years ago.

Isaiah 53:5

I thank You, Father, I have a healthy body and strong bones, because in the new birth, I chose to believe what You said and to revere You, turning away from my own understanding and wickedness.

Proverbs 3:7-8

I thank You, Father, I am a sheep of the Most High God. When You call me, I listen and follow You.

John 10:27

I thank You, Father, that, because I continue to believe in Christ Jesus and guide my life by His words, I have been given permission to ask for whatever I want and assured that my requests will be granted to me.

John 15:7

I thank You, Father, that I am eternally righteous, healed, and full of peace, because Jesus bore my sins, sicknesses, and anxiety in His own body and gave me His righteousness, health and peace in exchange.

Isaiah 53:5

I thank You, Father, I am blessed with health and healing, because the curse I deserved fell on Jesus instead.

Galatians 3:13, Deuteronomy 28:61

I thank You, Father, that I have the same Spirit, who raised Christ Jesus from the dead, living on the inside of me, quickening my mortal body with resurrection power.

Romans 8:11

I thank You, Father, that I expect my life to be rich and satisfying, because Jesus came to earth to set me free from the works of the devil.

John 10:10, I John 3:8

I thank You, Father, I do not fret about anything that opposes me, because all the enemy's plans are destined to fail.

Isaiah 54:17

I thank You, Father, that my Savior delights in prospering me.

Psalms 35:27

I thank You, Father, no one, not even satan, can defeat me, because You are rooting for me, directing my plays, and supplying me with every resource to win.

Romans 8:31, II Corinthians 2:14

I thank You, Father, You and I are so inseparable we are one spirit.

I Corinthians 6:17

I thank You, Father, I will live a long time and be satisfied - free from sin, oppression, fear, poverty, and disease - instructed by my God in the abundant freedom I have in Christ.

Psalms 91:16

I thank You, Father, that I delight in my Savior, and He shows me that He feels the same about me by freely giving me the desires of my heart.

Psalms 37:4

I thank You, Father, You are always on my side and we win, because no one, not even satan, can defeat God.

Romans 8:31

I thank You, Father, I am wise, because Christ Jesus is my wisdom, and He shares His mind with me.

I Corinthians 2:16, I Corinthians 1:30

I thank You, Father, that I do not trust my own way of looking at things, because I know You think differently than I do, seeing things I do not see, so I can't even imagine what You'll come up with next.

Proverbs 3:5, Isaiah 55:8

I thank You, Father, I have a hope and a future, because You have everything under control, insuring my maximum well-being.

Jeremiah 29:11

I thank You, Father, all disease symptoms I am experiencing are temporary with an expiration date, and the real truth is I am already eternally healed through the atoning work of Christ which took place over 2000 years ago.

II Corinthians 4:18, Isaiah 53:5

I thank You, Father, everything about me is new and good, because the old me and the things I used to like died when Jesus died.

II Corinthians 5:14, 17

I thank You, Father, I have enough faith to receive anything from You, because even faith as tiny as a mustard seed is powerful enough to move a mountain.

Luke 17:6

I thank You, Father, You always bless the work of my hands.

Deuteronomy 28:8

I thank You, Father, that nothing I can do or say will affect Your love for me, because You love me with an unfailing, unconditional love.

Romans 8:35, 38, 39

I thank You, Father, You would never disappoint me by giving me a stone when I ask for bread.

Matthew 7:9-11

I thank You, Lord Jesus, that You thoroughly understand all my weaknesses, because You were tempted in the same ways I am tempted.

Hebrews 4:15

I thank You, Father, I will not be ashamed for waiting on Your timing.

Isaiah 49:23

I thank You, Father, that You encourage me to speak and think of heavenly realities to bring to nothing the temporary circumstances of this earthly realm that attempt to overwhelm me.

I Corinthians 1:27-28
